The 2014 Pacific Update will provide a forum for discussion of the latest economic and policy developments in the region.

This annual event brings together leading thinkers and policy makers from the Pacific to discuss both country developments and regional issues.

The 2014 Pacific Update will consist of two days of panel discussions, including country updates from around the Pacific and panel sessions on: aid to the Pacific; regionalism and the Pacific Plan Review; fisheries management; and skills and labour mobility.

The 2014 Pacific Update is presented by the Development Policy Centre at Crawford School of Public Policy, The Australian National University, and is supported by the Asian Development Bank's Pacific Economic Management Technical Assistance and the Asia and the Pacific Policy Studies Society.

It forms part of Pacific Perspectives week at ANU, and will be followed by a two-day conference organised by the State Society and Governance in Melanesia program. Attendees are encouraged to attend both events.
