2017 Australasian Aid Conference Livestream

By Ashlee Betteridge

As in previous years, the plenary and keynote sessions of the 2017 Australasian Aid Conference were available to view via livestreaming at the links below – the links are now in catch up mode if you missed them on the day.

Livestreaming program

Wednesday 15 February (all times AEDT, GMT +11)

Please note the conference will be commencing earlier than originally scheduled, at 8.30am.

» Opening address: The Hon Julie Bishop MP (8.30-9.30am)
» Keynote address: Michael Woolcock (9.30-10.45am)
» Parallel session: The role and relevance of the ADB in the 21st century (11.20am-12.50pm)
» Plenary: Asian approaches to engaging the private sector in development cooperation (1.50-3.20pm)
» Parallel session: Country ownership and transitions (3.40-5.10pm)

Thursday 16 February (all times AEDT, GMT +11)

» Parallel session: Private sector innovation (8-9.30am)
» Plenary: 3MAP – the Three-Minute Aid Pitch (9.40-10.40am)
» Parallel session: Working with and through markets (11am-12.30pm)
» Plenary: The humanitarian system in crisis (1.30-3.00pm)
» Parallel session: Beyond capacity building: how development assistance can improve justice outcomes (3.20-4.50pm)
Full conference program available here.

Livestreams

Day 1 - morning

Direct link

Day 1 - afternoon

Direct link

Day 2 - morning

Direct link

Day 2 - afternoon

About the author/s

Ashlee Betteridge
Ashlee Betteridge is the Manager at the Development Policy Centre. She was previously a Research Officer at the centre from 2013-2017. A former journalist, she holds a Master of Public Policy (Development Policy) from ANU and has development experience in Indonesia and Timor-Leste.