

DT Global

Evidence-based Approach to Better Development Outcomes

February 2020

The Sensus Process

Sensus is predicated on ensuring local participation at every step of the process. Local stakeholders have a major role in designing survey instruments, validating initial findings, designing hyper-local intervention strategies, and ultimately, implementing grants to address community vulnerabilities.

Past Experience - Sensus

Helping Iraqi Communities Win the Peace

DT Global

