ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN IN THE PACIFIC

WOMEN'S ROLE IN PRIVATE SECTOR IS LIMITED BY:

THESE BARRIERS TRANSLATE INTO UNMET ECONOMIC POTENTIAL

1. BUSINESS LAW REFORM

PROBLEM

Regulation, red tape, and discrimination discourage formal business

The triple burden on women

No specific business structures geared toward women in business

SOLUTION

Simplified, automated business registrations take out discretion, reduce legal costs, eliminate discrimination, and take less time

Remote company meetings, automated annual reports and email updates

Single shareholder companies, reducing likelihood of male interference, separating legal and personal ownership and reducing informality

Community companies allow for communal ownership and management of resources, reducing fraud potential

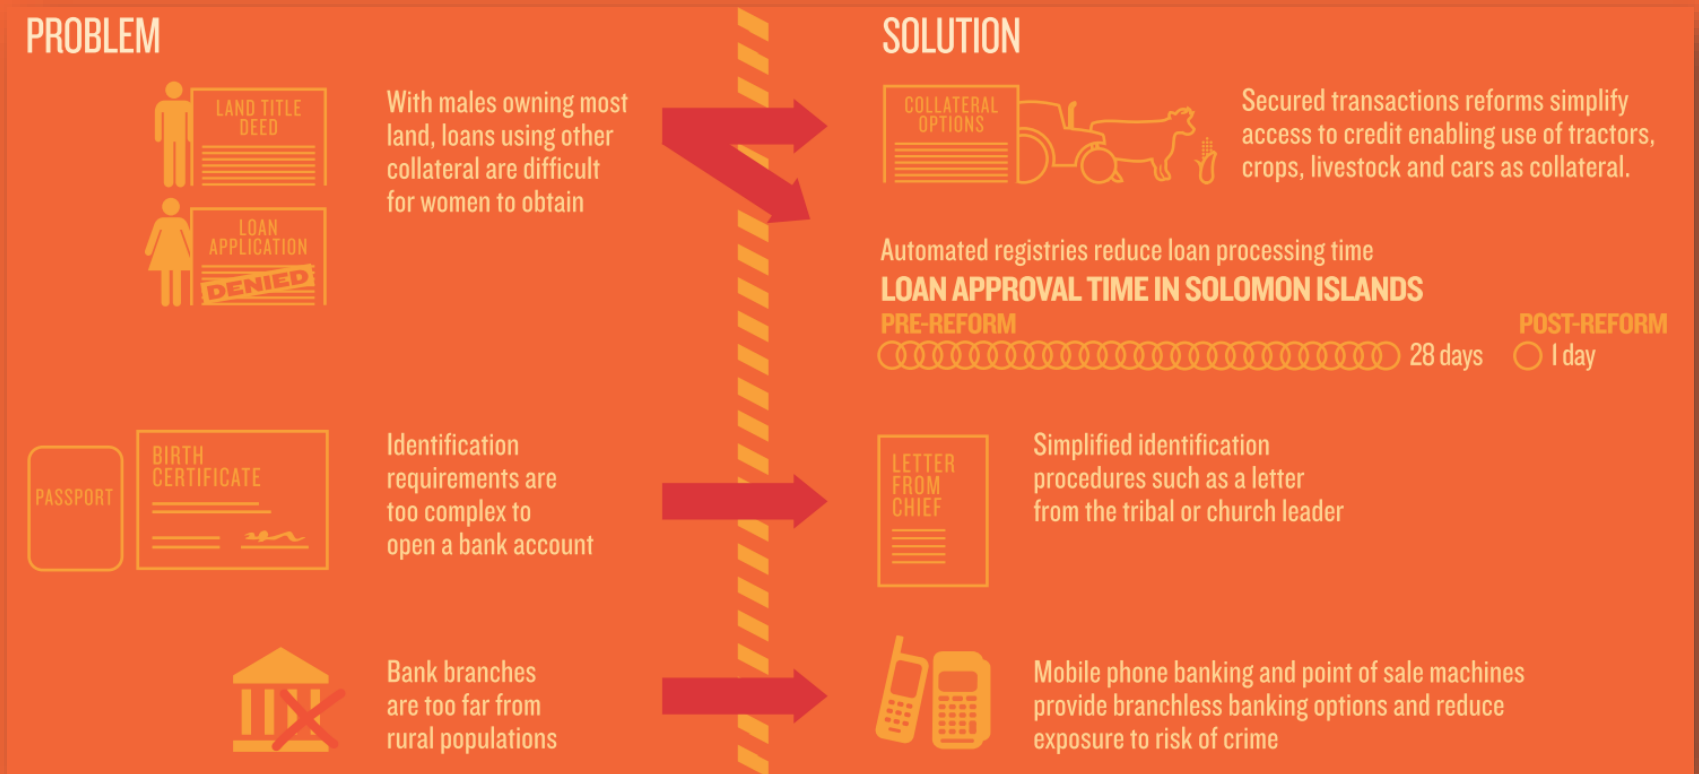

Results

826 female directors registered companies
25% increase 12/2010 – 5/2013

867 registered female shareholders
19% increase 12/2010 – 5/2013
