
+
•
○

PASIFIKA TRANS- TASMAN MIGRATION, MOBILITY & WELL-BEING

Dr. Ruth (Lute) Faleolo

La Trobe University

Pasifika trans- Tasman migration

Through New Zealand
to Australia

Collective mobility

Collective well-being

+

•

○

5 Key Ideas

Pasifika well-being is holistic

Fakalalakalaka fakalukufua

Pasifika collective agency

‘Economic mobility’

‘Remittance’ vs. Reciprocity

+

•

○

Important Pasifika concepts

Pasifika collective agency

Familial collectives

Holistic progress

Collective progress

Reciprocity

Pasifika 'good life' well-being

Holistic

Eight spheres interlinked

The complexity of Pasifika well-being, overlooked in research

Fakalalakalaka fakalukufua

Progressive and holistic development

Fulfilled for collectives
in places of settlement

Influences migration

+

•

○

Pasifika collective agency

EXTENSION OF SOCIOCULTURAL
CONNECTIONS

EMBEDDED IN SOCIOCULTURAL
VALUES

ECONOMIC BETTERMENT NURTURES
CONNECTIONS

Economic mobility

Driven by cultural identity and values

Pasifika frameworks of anga faka-Tonga and faa-Samoa inspire their movements and metrics of mobility and collective development

+

•

o

Remittance vs.
Reciprocity

Tauhi vā
Teu le va

Sociocultural and relational spaces

Pasifika trans- Tasman collectives

Meaningful movements

Multi-sited mobility

Fulfilling hopes

Holistic progress and well-being maintained

+

•

○