

Devpolicy seeks Research Fellows

By Stephen Howes

29 April 2014

We are currently recruiting for one or more Research Fellows to join the Development Policy Centre. We are looking for outstanding early or mid-career researchers with a strong commitment to high-quality, policy-based research; a PhD in economics, public policy or a related field; and expertise in one or more of the three fields in which the Centre specialises (Australian aid effectiveness, development in PNG and the Pacific, global development policy).

We are particularly interested in anyone who might have an interest working on and in PNG.

More details on selection criteria and the application process are available at ANU Jobs. If you have questions, contact us at devpolicy@anu.edu.au. The deadline is May 11.
