Hear the man who started the Global Fund, renowned global health and development expert Sir Richard Feachem, speak on malaria eradication in the Asia Pacific in a public seminar on Tuesday 25 November (12.30pm, Barton Theatre). Sir Feachem will discuss the striking progress that has been made in some countries in the region, and the challenges that lie ahead. Register here.

Sam Koim on tackling corruption in PNG

Not one to shy away from the headlines, Sam Koim, the chairman of PNG's Taskforce Sweep, has been an outspoken critic of the lack of action on corruption in Papua New Guinea, including Australia's inaction on money laundering.

Taskforce Sweep was ordered to disband this year after Prime Minister Peter O'Neill was served with an arrest warrant over his alleged role in a corruption scandal. But it continues to operate in an increasingly difficult environment. In a seminar on 27 November, Sam Koim will speak about his challenging work. More details and registrations here.

The theme for the Update will be "Development Challenges in the LNG Era".

‘A lost decade?’ Australian launch

After a successful launch in Port Moresby last month, we will be launching the report from our joint NRI-ANU Promoting Effective Public Expenditure program here in Canberra on 11 December.

The report ‘A lost decade? Service delivery and reforms in Papua New Guinea 2002-2012’ is based on two years of research and survey results on some 360 primary schools and health care clinics across the country, from the national capital to the most remote districts.

Speakers will include NRI Director Dr Thomas Webster. For further details on the event, contact macarena.rojas@anu.edu.au.

If you can’t wait until December to hear the findings, the report and a summary is available online.
