

2017 Pacific Update conference program now available

By Matthew Dornan

The 2017 Pacific Update conference, the region's premier forum for discussion of public policy issues, will take place at the University of the South Pacific's main Laucala campus on 20-21 June 2017. This year conference themes include the blue-green economy; labour mobility, markets and job creation; and enhancing connectivity in the Pacific islands region. Dame Meg Taylor, the Secretary General of the Pacific Islands Forum, will provide opening remarks. A draft program and conference details can be accessed here.
