

Public seminar in Moresby on Sovereign Wealth Fund

By Ashlee Betteridge
24 June 2014

The National Research Institute (NRI) is holding a free seminar on the Sovereign Wealth Fund in Port Moresby on Wednesday 25 June.

NRI is undertaking a study into the progress made in the establishment of the PNG Sovereign Wealth Fund (SWF), what has happened so far, what needs to be done and why it is critical and important to establish the SWF as soon as possible. The preliminary findings of the study will be presented at the seminar to generate public debate and discussions.
